Lewis Sharpe (GGC): 6 saves

In a hard-fought defensive battle, a penalty kick in the 61st minute was the difference as the Georgia Gwinnett men's soccer team was defeated in its NAIA National Championship opening round debut at Embry-Riddle Aeronautical University on the Eagles' home field in Daytona Beach, Fla., Nov. 23. Freshman goalkeeper Lewis Sharpe had a season-high six saves and the Grizzlies fired 14 shots on offense, but GGC could not break through against the seasoned tournament team. The fantastic season ends at 15-5 for the A.I.I. Champion Grizzlies.

Thank you for your support of our men's and women's soccer teams. We look forward to seeing you this spring!
